

Painting In Mexico

March 12-22, 2010

Ten days in the beautiful historic colonial city of San Miguel de Allende.

We will stay within walking distance of the center of town (the Jardin) and spend 10 days painting en plein air with instruction

and painting
demonstrations given
by Dottie Oatman. A
town of sumptuous
color,
textures,
culture, and
endless
painting
subjects.

The rest of our time will include site seeing, enjoying Mexican cuisine, shopping at the mercados, visiting the surrounding cities of Guanajuato and Dolores Hidalgo, while creating our own art travel journals of our trip. Optional cooking and Spanish classes available!

$1,750.00 (not including airfare)

$500 deposit due Dec. 5, 2009 to hold your spot.

Interested? E-mail Dottie (oatdot@riosltd.com) for more information.