

Painting In Mexico

March 23-April 2, 2012

Ten days in the beautiful historic colonial city of San Miguel de Allende.

We will stay within walking distance of the center of town (the Jardin) and spend 10 days painting en plein air with instruction and painting demonstrations given by Dottie Oatman. You will delight in this town of sumptuous color, textures, culture, and endless painting subjects. The rest of our time will include site seeing, enjoying Mexican cuisine, shopping at the mercados, visiting the surrounding cities of Guanajuato and Dolores Hidalgo, witnessing several of the very special pre-Easter processions, while creating our own art travel journals of our trip. Optional cooking and Spanish classes available!

$1,850.00 (not including airfare)

$500 deposit due November 15, 2011 to hold your spot.

Come to an Information Session on Wednesday, November 2, 7-8:30pm at my home, 2881 21st Street, Boulder.
