

Travel to Spain: Painting, Art & Culture April 28-May 8, 2012

A fun filled tour of Spain at its height of Spring celebrations. The tour begins in Madrid for a cultural intensive on Spanish art, historical sites, sidewalk cafes, shopping, tapas and Spanish wines. Then off to Sevilla for an infusion of Almudejar architecture (Moorish influence), warm Spanish smiles, excellent Flamenco shows, and more... We finish our trip in Jerez de la Frontera for the Horse Fair (Feria del Caballo) which dates back to the 1400's. There you will be lost in the visual beauty of the locals all dressed in their costumes made just for the Feria! Watercolor painting en plein air and in art travel journals all along the way, will improve your painting style and capture your experiences in even more memorable ways. Trip led by Salli Gutierrez, painting led by Dottie Oatman.

$3,495 (not including airfare)
$500 deposit due December 1, 2011
to reserve your spot.

Come to an Information Session on Thursday, November 10, 7-8:30pm at Dottie's home, 2881 21st Street, Boulder

.Interested? Questions? E-mail Dottie (oatdot@riosltd.com) for more information.